West European Politics is a refereed journal that publishes scholarly articles in the fields of European government, politics and public policy. The journal focuses on political developments in individual countries, cross-country comparative analyses, and the study of European integration, notably the relations between the European Union (EU) and its member states. Since the mid-1990s, WEP has covered the new democracies of Central Europe and the Baltics, in addition to its long-standing interest in Western, Southern and Northern Europe. WEP publishes regular Election Reports and the Editors welcome suggestions by prospective authors.

WEP publishes thematic special issues. The Editors encourage the submission of special issue proposals that are of interest to a broad political science readership.

A comprehensive 25-year index of all articles and reports published in WEP during the period 1978 to 2002 has been published as a separate issue in 2004.

Articles submitted to WEP must not be under consideration for any other publication at the same time.

Manuscripts and enquiries to the Editors should be submitted electronically to Professor Klaus H. Goetz. Email: westeuropeanpolitics@lse.ac.uk.

Word is the preferred format.

Books for review and all correspondence reading book review and review articles should be addressed to Dr Martin Lodge, Reviews Editor, West European Politics, Department of Government, LSE Houghton Street, London WC2A 2AE, UK. Email: m.lodge@lse.ac.uk.

Statements of fact or opinion appearing in WEP are solely those of the authors and do not imply endorsement by the editors or publishers.
